

Western Digital.

Western Digital warrants that the hardware in the Products will perform in substantial accordance with the corresponding Product documentation for one (1) year from the date of shipment and that the Software will perform in substantial accordance with the corresponding Product documentation for ninety (90) days from the date of shipment. If there is warranty return issue, Western Digital may, at its option, either (i) repair or replace any defective Product with a new or refurbished Product or components of equal or greater functionality as the returned Product, or (ii) will refund the purchase price paid to Western Digital for such Product, reduced on a straight-line basis over a three-year life. Replacement Products or components will continue to be warranted for the remainder of the applicable warranty term. Repair, replacement or refund is the sole and exclusive remedy for breach of this warranty. Under the Software warranty, Western Digital will provide Customer access to bug fixes and emergency patches. This warranty does not cover defects or damages resulting from: (a) use of Products other than in a normal and customary manner in accordance with the Product documentation; (b) physical or electronic abuse or misuse, accident, or neglect; or (c) alterations or repairs made to Products that are not authorized by Western Digital in writing.
